Welcome to Adult Community Learning at Cottenham, Impington & Swavesey Village Colleges

We are pleased to offer a combined programme again for 2010/11, building on the successful courses offered last year. Courses are offered in the daytime, evenings and on Saturdays.

When you join a class, you can be assured of a high-quality service on a course taught by a well-qualified and enthusiastic tutor.

We hope that you find something of interest to you – whether it's to enhance your current skills, for leisure, mental stimulation, well-being – or all of these!

We look forward to seeing you in 2010.

Adult Learning in Cambridgeshire

Cambridgeshire County Council is the Lead Accountable Body for Informal Adult Learning and supports a wide range of Adult Learning opportunities across Cambridgeshire including courses, clubs and community groups.

These activities are contracted out and managed by a number of providers including FE, Village and Community Colleges. Local partnerships have been set up to identify needs in each area and ensure local communities have access to learning opportunities.

Getting it right for learners

We aim to offer the best possible experience for adult learners in Cambridgeshire and we welcome your views on how we can improve our service.
